COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA

v.

F-6036

GWENDOLYN MENELEE,

Defendant

MOTION TO NOLLE PROSEQUI

COMES NOW the Commonwealth, by its Attorney, to Nolle Prosequi the above styled matter, and for reasons therefor states as follows:

1. The defendant herein, Gwendolyn Menefee, was indicted by the Grand Jury for this Court in the above styled matter on September 7, 1982 upon a bill of indictment alleging that she committed grand larceny.

2. Since September 7, 1982, the Attorney for the Commonwealth has learned that a witness which the Commonwealth intended to have testify in the trial of the above styled matter is now deceased.

3. The deceased witness was to have provided vital and indispensable evidence for the Commonwealth that could not otherwise be provided.

4. At present, with the evidence remaining, it is the opinion of the Attorney for the Commonwealth that there is now insufficient evidence to prove the defendant guilty as charged beyond a reasonable doubt.

WHEREFORE, the Commonwealth moves this Court to NOLLE PROSEQUI the above styled matter.

Respectfully submitted,
